

Wanna Toss your Boss or a Fellow Employee from a Plane??

It's for a good cause!

SKYDIVE FOR AFRICA!

On Saturday June 27th or August 22nd

Support development in Africa by challenging your boss or colleague to jump out of a plane.

Ainembabazi Children's Project is hosting the 3rd Annual SKYDIVE FOR AFRICA - the goal of the event is to raise money for the orphaned children of Uganda & their community by pushing someone out of a plane....either by choice or....well they do have to agree to do it....so I guess we'll go with by choice. ;)

What you would need to do is get your boss or colleague to agree to skydive if you and your co-workers are able to raise $800 in funds to support our charity. You could even consider challenging one of your rival companies or organizations to see if they can beat you at the task!

All we need to secure the skydiving spot is a fill in the signup sheet on our website and start fundraising! We have two alternative jump dates you can select from - Saturday June 27th or August 22nd - what a way to add some excitement to the summer and get back at your boss or colleague!

If you are interested please contact us at skydive@ainembabazi.org or see our "News & Events" area of our website - <http://www.ainembabazi.org/skydive.htm> - for all the forms.

There is plenty of room for on-lookers, hand-holders & picture-takers so please come out & support our jumpers!!

We'll see ya in the skies!
